Subject: Culver's 5 Lawsuit Settled

The five persons who had been arrested at Culver's when carrying guns sued the City of Madison and individual police officers for an alleged violation of their constitutional rights to bear arms. The case was brought under sec. 1983, which would make the City liable for attorneys fees if we lost the case.

Based on the cost of defense and the possible costs of an adverse verdict, the City reached agreement to settle the entire case (all five plaintiffs) for a total of $10,000.

The City was represented by Cathy Rottier, one of our outside counsel under the WMMIC insurance policy.

Let me know if you have any questions.
