A Letter from Mike Tate

In a hard-fought Democratic primary that was always honorable and remained focused on defeating Scott Walker, we saw four Democratic candidates who added to the conversation and who understood the unity required with less than four weeks to win an historic election against the amassed wealth and power of the Scott Walker corporate political machine.

Now, as the Party of the People, we all stand united behind Tom Barrett and with the grassroots movement that will remove Scott Walker from office, restore integrity and trust to public office and get Wisconsin working again.

After months of historic division, job loss, criminal corruption and partisan power grabs, Tom Barrett will put Wisconsin first and end Scott Walker’s ideological civil war.

As our new governor, Tom Barrett will work with all Wisconsinites to focus on education, jobs and economic security for working families, not tax breaks for the wealthy.

Scott Walker has shown time and again that he is somebody willing to divide neighbor-against-neighbor in a way that harms the working families of Wisconsin. Recently released video of Walker promising a Koch brothers strategist that he will “use divide and conquer” against the people of Wisconsin is a stark reminder that we cannot move forward with Scott Walker in office.

Tom Barrett offers a new start to practice a politics of unity and inclusion.

Tom Barrett will put Wisconsin first, but with just 23 days to go, we are in a race against not only the clock, but also the $25 million Scott Walker was able to amass from out-of-state special interests.

That’s why I’m sending you this status update today - so you can see the progress we’ve made and what we still need to do in just 23 days to finish the job of recalling Scott Walker. Momentum is on our side and we have the more than 35,000 volunteers to prove it. We’ve activated our neighbor-to-neighbor program of people talking to people in their front lawns, in their kitchens, and in their living rooms about the future of our state and it’s stronger than any amount of sleazy special interest cash Scott Walker can haul in.

But the job isn't done. Please take a moment to review the attached documents, share them with your friends and chip in with a grassroots donation of $5 to defeat Scott Walker on June 5 by visiting http://www.wisdem.org/strategy.

Thank you,

Mike Tate
Chair, Democratic Party of Wisconsin
Polling Update

Polling on Scott Walker and the recall has remained remarkably consistent since he launched his ideological attack on workers and families last year – Walker remains the most polarizing governor in the country.

Since Tuesday’s election results, Wisconsin voters are now focused on what’s at stake on June 5th and are united and ready to work hard to elect Tom Barrett. See the latest polling below.

Tom Barrett - Prepared to Win

Latest public independent polling shows Tom Barrett in the lead

A new poll from the Marquette University Law School shows a virtual tie between Milwaukee Mayor Tom Barrett and Gov. Scott Walker. Numbers show Milwaukee Mayor Tom Barrett leads Gov. Scott Walker 47-46 percent among all registered voters. (The poll interviewed 707 registered Wisconsin voters by both landline and cell phone March 22-25, 2012. The margin of error is $\pm$ 3.8 percentage points for the full sample.)

NBC/ Marist poll of Wisconsin shows Republican Gov. Scott Walker lagging behind a Democratic candidate; 48 percent of Wisconsin voters saying they’ll vote for the eventual Democratic candidate and only 46 percent indicating they will support Gov. Scott Walker. (The poll interviewed 2,792 registered voters March 26-27, 2012. The margin of error is $\pm$ 1.9 percentage points for the full sample.)

Field Program

There is no question that the recall election will come down to turnout, and a robust field and Get Out The Vote (GOTV) effort will be a critical element for a winning campaign.

Every weekend leading up to Election Day weekend, our offices will be doing ‘Get Out the Vote’ practice rounds to make sure we’re ready to finish strong. Our work between now and Election Day is crucial to turn out the votes we need to elect Tom Barrett on June 5th.

Since we’ve started last November, our organizing to recall Scott Walker has been nothing short of incredible. Over the last 6 weeks to date, we’ve made over 409,000 phone calls and door knocks from 48 different offices throughout the state of Wisconsin. Between now and Election Day, we will make 1.2 million additional door phone calls and door knocks to identify the votes we need.

Our plan to win on June 5th includes aggressive goals to make sure we talk to voters in every corner of the state. We’re going to make sure they’re registered and ready to cast their ballot.

In order to meet our goals we will need to recruit over 23,645 different volunteer shifts to:

- Knock 727,890 Doors
- Make 472,200 Calls
We’ll need everyone to help us Get Out the Vote on Election Day. In the coming weeks, our field program will use the best practices we’ve learned to continue identifying our voters. The work between now and Election Day is key to make sure our voters get to the polls to cast their ballot.

Neighbor to Neighbor

Since Tuesday night, Tom Barrett has continued to travel throughout Wisconsin bringing neighbors together in communities across the state.

With Front Yard event stops in Wauwatosa, De Pere, Schofield, La Crosse, and Eau Claire amongst others thus far, the conversations of Wisconsinites everywhere are focused on bringing us together to put Wisconsin first.

Tom Barrett’s plan to put Wisconsin first focuses on:

- Growing Wisconsin’s economy;
- Educating out children and retraining our workforce; and
- Ending Scott Walker’s War on Women.

“It is time to end Scott Walker’s civil war in Wisconsin and heal this state by bringing people together. We need to stop the devastating cuts to education and focus on putting people back to work and creating jobs for all of Wisconsin.”

- Tom Barrett

Communications update

Earned media

The Democratic Party of Wisconsin employs aggressive earned and paid media efforts to keep Scott Walker on the defensive and spread our key message points:

- Scott Walker lied to the people about what he would do as governor
- Scott Walker and his administration are not working for Wisconsin middle-class families (example: cutting public education by $2.6 billion to pay for more than $2.3 billion in handouts to out-of-state corporations and the super-rich)
- Scott Walker is solely interested in power grabs for himself and his cronies (examples: redistricting process in which Walker’s legislative Republicans signed secrecy oaths)
- Scott Walker is out-of-touch and too extreme for Wisconsin families (example: Walker supports amending our Wisconsin constitution to ban common forms of birth control and outlaw abortion across the board -- even in cases of rape and incest, or if a woman's life is in danger)

Our efforts yield an average of more than $40,000 per month in earned media in the way of television and radio appearances, as well as placements in print media.

Additionally, our communications and research staff daily engages with Scott Walker and his allies in a rapid response style, calling out hypocrisy, manipulation and outright lies in both traditional and social media. We make frequent use of the thousands of hours of tracking footage we have acquired of Scott Walker’s public and private appearances since 2009.

John Doe

Since the recall effort began, the ongoing criminal investigation of Scott Walker’s current and former administration has developed into a full-blown scandal of historic implications that reinforces the image of Scott Walker’s administration as being corrupt.

With the creation of a criminal defense fund, the scandal appears to be leading directly towards Scott Walker. According to Wisconsin law, this fund can only be established if Scott Walker is "being investigated, being charged with or has been convicted of a criminal violation."

Scott Walker, the ONLY governor in Wisconsin history with a criminal defense fund, has refused to disclose the donors to that fund, which recently received a $60,000 infusion from his campaign war chest as part of the ongoing criminal corruption probe, despite claiming that he would be the most "transparent" governor in Wisconsin history.

This historic criminal corruption scandal has already led to the arrests of six of Walker’s top aides and associates.

To inform voters of the ongoing criminal probe, the Democratic Party of Wisconsin has established an interactive micro-site at http://www.WalkerInvestigation.com. This website invites members of the public to join the investigation and crack the case. This site is supported with online advertising, email and social media campaigns.

Digital Strategy and Online Organizing

The Democratic Party of Wisconsin has invested in an innovative online organizing toolset that has provided us with an unprecedented level of integration between our online efforts and our field program.

To date our online efforts have performed well and continue to help us get our message out.

Check out the statistics to date:

- Youtube: Our videos have been viewed more than 309,000 times
- Facebook: Our page has grown to more than 31,000 likes, making us the most liked and active state party in the country.
- Facebook: In total, we reach more than 117,000 people in more than 20 countries each week on FB
- Website: We average double the number of unique visitors to wisdems.org than to scottwalker.org.

Online Organizing

We know that the best way to reach people is to meet them where they are. If we can’t contact them by phone or at their door through our field program, we want to meet them in other ways – a key medium being the internet.

Through our social media and online recall office – people are able to see how they can get involved and sign up for upcoming events in their community.

Key resources volunteers and voters can use to get the most up-to-date information include:

- You can sign up to volunteer, find a local office, learn more about upcoming events, learn more about the state senate recall elections, and get the information you need to share with voters about why they should support Tom Barrett and his ideas for bringing our state together.

Candidate Tom Barrett’s website - www.barrettforwisconsin.com
- Get the latest from Tom Barrett’s campaign.

Important Voter Information - www.ownyourvotewi.com
- A great resource for the information you need to know before you cast your ballot on Election Day. Find the facts you need, where you can get registered, key dates to be aware of and additional help for students and other voters to cast their ballot.
